At What Age Is Man Strongest?

The muscles, in common with all the organs of the body, have their stages of development and decline; our physical strength increases up to a certain age and then decreases. Tests of the strength of several thousands of people have been made by means of a dynamometer (strength measurer) and the following are given as the average figures for the white race.

The "lifting power" of a youth of 17 years is 280 pounds; in his twentieth year this increases to 320 pounds, and in the thirtieth and thirty-first years it reaches its height, 350 pounds. At the end of the thirty first year the strength begins to decline, very slowly at first.

By the fortieth year it has decreased eight pounds, and this diminution con- tinues at a slightly increasing rate until the fiftieth year is reached, when the figure is 330 pounds.

After this period the strength falls more and more rapidly until the weak- ness of old age is reached. It is not pos- sible to give statistics of the decline of strength after the fiftieth year, as it varies to a large extent in different in- dividuals.—Strand Magazine.

The Luminous Sea Crab.

One of the marine crustaceans recently fished from the bottom of the Indian ocean by a dredging vessel in the em- ploy of the Calcutta Society of Natural History was a mammoth sea crab which continually emitted a bright white light similar to that seen in the spasmodic flashes of phosphorescent luminosity kindled by our common fireflies. The oddity was captured in daytime and placed in a large tank, nothing peculiar except its unusual size being noticeable in the broad glare of the tropical sun. At night, however, when all was in pitchy darkness, the crab surprised the naturalists by lighting up the tank so that all the other sea creatures, great and small, occupying the same tank could be plainly seen. When the luminous crustacean was prodded with a pole, he emitted flashes of lights which enabled the experimenters to read small print, even though otherwise they were in total darkness.—St. Louis Republic.

WHERE WAR IS A PICNIC.

A Correspondent Describes the Most Recent Central American Revolution.

A correspondent writing from Nicaragua declares that war is a sweet and peaceful pastime in that country. At the present time 1,000 Nicaraguans are confronting the entire number of soldiers from Honduras who have invaded the republic to sustain the president. The two armies simply face each other. They have no thought of fighting. The soldiers are living in the best houses, and they have their women with them and do no work. Once a day they fire off a few cannon at long range and do no damage. Then they resume their cigarettes and take a nap. The troops are delighted with the state of affairs. They like it better than working on the plantations, and they hope that the merry war will continue forever.

The Nicaraguans love war and especially the kind of war they wage. On hot days the soldiers take off their trousers and lounge about in the shade. They smoke and drink and gamble to their hearts' content. The only thing that ever disturbs them is an accidental meeting with some of the enemy, but when this occurs both sides run away as fast as their legs can carry them. They would not harm one another for anything.

The gentle Nicaraguans are teaching the world a lesson. When other nations adopt their methods of war, armed conflicts will cease to be a serious menace to life and property. —Atlanta Constitution.

THOUGHT MANLEY A GUIDE

Son of the Vice President Chides the Maine Politician.

Joseph Manley of Maine, secretary of the national Republican committee and the foremost manager of Mr. Reed's presidential campaign, was taken for a capital guide the other day by Lewis Stevenson, son of the vice president. Young Mr. Stevenson has just returned from Japan after a long absence and is therefore not as well acquainted with the faces of public men as he might be. He was in his father's private room in the capitol with a friend when a short man walked in with a half dozen followers and began pointing out the famous pictures and other things that adorn the room. Young Stevenson was considerably disturbed, and calling the short man aside he said, "I wish you guides would knock before you come into this room."

"I'm not a guide," was the reply. "My name is Manley," answered Mr. Stevenson. "Where are you from?" "I'm from Maine," was the reply, "and I have a job with the national Republican committee. I had some friends in town, and I was just showing them the sights."

Mr. Stevenson apologized, and Joe Manley rejoined his friends in the hall outside. —Chicago Times-Herald.

KIDNAPED THE MAYOR.

Chief Official of St. Joseph, Mich., Made Prisoner by Women.

Fifty women, leading members of local clubs and church societies, have made a captive of Mayor John V. Starr of St. Joseph, Mich. They caught him on the street, and dragging him into a private residence, demanded that he cooperate with them in a movement of reform.

The women cried that the mayor was not being enforced, that the sale of cigarettes was carried on with impunity, that young girls were being enticed away, and that the saloon regulations were loose, and boys of all ages were given liquor upon asking.

For two hours the mayor was kept a prisoner, and not until he promised to submit the matter to the executive department of the city was he permitted to escape.

The women demanded the adoption of a curfew bill, upon the ringing of which children of certain ages must retire from the streets.

The city is considerably torn up over the determined stand taken by the women, and the effect of their interview with the mayor is freely discussed. —Chicago Tribune.

Springtime in Georgia.

The time to advance—all the time. Some men are born great. Others have to start a career paper.

The politician takes no count of the process. In his estimation plans are always ripe.

Children and women are somewhat alike in the respect as both seem to goad their friends in making their plans.

Children go to have a bicycle factory or a mine with a capital of eleven. Very few men will then have what is in their heads.

The game of life is begun with a ruler.

THE - POSTOFFICE

Enjoys the biggest trade in town; but as we claim to have always been next to the postoffice, (next door) it was fitting that, the latter having vacated the old quarters, we should take possession. So what's what we did, and this

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Is printed so that everybody may know it. It is important that you should know where to find us, for it wouldn't do to have people dropping dead in the street, not knowing where to find us, when we have a whole store full of medicines, with which we gladly save all the lives we can. So, henceforth,

IF ANYTHING'S THE MATTER WITH YOU, GO TO THE POSTOFFICE.

The old postoffice, of course, not the new. There in the future, as in the past, you may feel sure your prescriptions will always be carefully compounded, and at reasonable prices.

See our splendid new line of Fine Perfumes.

SIXTY-FOURTH

Annual Session of the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge.

Addresses of Welcome Delivered by Mayor Baxter, Hon. W. B. Ritchie

And Mrs. Belle S. Rudy—Business of the Morning Meeting—Officers and Delegates to Visit the Odd Fellows' Home at Springfield To-morrow.

The representatives of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Ohio are here, and they are here in force. They began to arrive on the afternoon train yesterday, and during last night and to-day every incoming train brought in more or less delegates and visitors from every part of the state. The visiting delegations are not as large or numerous as was anticipated, because of the threatening weather.

The grand officers are quartered at the Lima House, and many of the delegates are also there, while the others are being entertained at the other hotels.

Among the delegations that arrived early this morning was the Spencerville lodge, accompanied by the I. O. O. F. band from that city.

THE OPENING MEETING

Of the 64th annual session of the Grand Lodge of Ohio was held in the headquarters of Allen lodge, and was called to order at 10 o'clock by Grand Master B. S. Dryfus, of Shawnee, O. Dr. S. A. Baxter, as mayor of the city, delivered the opening address of welcome, which was well received.

He said: "Grand Master, Ladies and Gentlemen—Grand Lodges meet for work and not for declamation. I will detain you but a moment.

The city of Lima and her citizens extend a cordial welcome to this grand lodge and visiting friends.

We welcome you to our homes, our factories and places of business. We accept you as our own tribe and kindred, and are proud of the relationship.

Why should we not extend a royal greeting to a fraternity whose fundamental principles are those of deeds of charity and pure beneficence, that numbers among its distinguished dead the names of Grant, Garfield, Hayes and Colfax; an order that holds over sixteen millions in value of realty; that has twenty-four homes, orphanages and asylums; that has forty-three publications, printed in half a dozen languages, and a membership of nearly a million, over seventy thousand in Ohio, and several hundred of the best representatives of manhood in our own little city; but over and beyond all else, a loving fraternity that in 1895 paid out nearly three and a half millions of dollars for the relief of the sick, the distressed, the widow and orphan.

It is no thoughtless word or idle phrasing when we bid you welcome, welcome, welcome." (Applause.)

Dr. Baxter was followed by Hon. W. B. Ritchie, who in behalf of the Odd Fellows of Lima, welcomed the visitors. His address was brief but eloquent, and highly appreciated.

After he had concluded, Mrs. Belle S. Rudy, in behalf of Shawnee Golden Gate and Estella Rebecca lodges of this city, also welcomed the officers, delegates and other visitors. Mrs. Rudy's address was a very creditable one, and like the others, was received with enthusiastic applause.

The addresses of welcome were repeated by Grand Master Dryfus, whose well chosen remarks were seconded by the applause given by the delegates. After his address all but the Grand Lodge officers and delegates retired from the lodge room and the was taken up.

Among other matters of importance at the meeting was the receiving of the annual reports of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Auditing Committee and Grand Representatives.

These reports were submitted by the Grand Secretary, Mr. C. H. Lyman, of Pomeroy, Ohio, who is a man of genial personalities, and is one of the most thoroughly educated members in Odd Fellowship in the state. He is editor of the Bundle of Sticks, a monthly publication devoted to Odd Fellowship. At the conclusion of his report he stated:

"The Grand Lodge of Ohio is fortunate to-day in holding its session in the beautiful little city of Lima. The place itself has been twice blessed by nature, and man's efforts have as often made its blessings conspicuous. The natural fertility of its soil enabled Allen county's first settlers to make the wilderness rejoice and blossom as the rose; and when the pent-up richness of the centuries was discovered deep in the heart of her mother earth, new life and energy were given to her thirty sons until the wealth here added to the world has far exceeded the golden Lima of Pizarro's fondest dreams. Of this community it may truly be said that its 'light hath gone forth to all the world'—(and it's a standard article.)

As the little county seat has grown into a bustling city, Odd Fellowship has grown with it, and three progressive subordinate lodges, with as many of the Rebekah degree, compete for the honor of the largest proportionate membership to population within our jurisdiction."

WILL VISIT SPRINGFIELD

By a resolution introduced in the meeting, this morning, the Grand Lodge officers, representatives and delegates decided to visit the Odd Fellows Home at Springfield, O., tomorrow. A special train will be furnished by the Ohio Southern and will leave here at 12:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and will return with the visitors to-morrow evening. A meeting will be held to-morrow morning, and at noon the Grand Lodge business will be continued until Thursday morning, when the session will be resumed.

STREET TALK.

A movement has been started by Sleuth Huffman, the local base ball enthusiast, and others, toward organizing a city league, consisting of four local base ball clubs, to play a series of games during the season. The four teams will probably be Sleuth Huffman's team, the Mar-quettes, the Shamrocks and the High School team. A meeting of the captains of the different teams will be held Monday next, and an effort will be made to play the initial game on Decoration Day.

Attorney W. B. Ritchie, general counsel for the Lima Northern, after a return trip made to Napoleon yesterday, was much pleased with the physical condition of the road. The trip from Napoleon to Lima, fifty miles, was made in two hours and ten minutes, with the engine running backwards.

NOT TRUE

The Report that Rev. Wallace was Appointed Superintendent

Of the Ohio Deaf and Dumb Asylum. Likely to be Appointed Superintendent of the Ohio Asylum for the Education of the Blind.

A dispatch from Columbus, published in the Cincinnati Enquirer yesterday, and copied in the Republican-Gazette this morning, states:

"Unless the signs fall, Hon. S. H. Burrows, superintendent of the state institution of the deaf and dumb, will lose his official head to day. The board of trustees of that institution will meet this afternoon, and it is understood that there will be a change in the superintendency."

"It is said that Rev. Richard Wallace, a Methodist minister and ardent foraker man of Lima, is to be selected for the place."

When seen by a representative of the Times-Democrat yesterday afternoon, Rev. Wallace stated that he was not a candidate for the office of superintendent of the Ohio Deaf and Dumb Asylum, and expected no such appointment.

Rev. Wallace is, however, very likely to be tendered the appointment to the office of superintendent of the Ohio Asylum for the Education of the Blind, but that appointment will not be made until the third week in June.

Should the office be tendered Rev. Wallace it will be accepted by him, but Lima will still be his home and he will remain in the insurance business, as at present, with his sons, R. E. and W. H. Wallace.
